Intro (on E-)

Verse 1

Well the glory goes to those who do not seek it Reveling in midnight clothes among the wicked
Picking scabs from off their skin and rolling holy deeply Into the rhythm called the song that does not end.

Chorus

You remind me of something, a song that I am
And you sing me back into myself.
When I wake, when I'm sleeping
The song is a man and a woman and everything else.

Verse 2

And my mother is a good one as they go.
She does not condone the actions that I do that she don't know.
She swears nightly before resting
And I give her soul a testing
When I sing the song that does not end.

Chorus

Bridge

It's been years since I found it
I still go where it pounded
My ears pressed to the chest of that old woman of song
She adores me, she ignores me and I revel on
In wonder at something so sweet and so long.

Verse 3

I like the places where the night
does not mean an end.
Where smiles break free
and surprise is your friend
And dancing goes on in the kitchen until dawn
to my favourite song that has no end.

Chorus
