Verse 1

Well I sought gold and diamond rings
 My own drug to ease the pain that living brings
 Walked from the mountain to the valley floor
 Searchin' for my beautiful reward.

Verse 2

From a house on a hill a sacred light shines
 I walk through these rooms
 but none of them are mine.
 Down empty hallways I went from door to door
 Searchin' for my beautiful reward.

Bridge

Well your hair shone in the sun
 I was so high I was the lucky one.
 Then I came crashing down
 like a drunk on the barroom floor.
 Searchin' for my beautiful reward.

Verse 3

Tonight I can feel the cold wind at my back
 I'm flyin' high over gray fields
 my feathers are long and black
 Down along the river's silent edge I soar
 Searchin' for my beautiful reward.
