Verse 1

There is a house built out of stone
 Wooden floors, walls and windowsills
 Tables and chairs worn by all of the dust
 This is a place where I don't feel alone,
 This is a place where I feel at home.

Chorus

And I built a home, for you, for me
 Until it disappeared, from me, from you
 And now, it's time to live and time to die.

Verse 2

Out in the garden where we planted the seeds
 There is a tree as old as me
 Branches were sewn by the color of green
 Ground had arose, then past its knees
 By the cracks of its skin I climbed to the top
 I climbed the tree to see the world
 When a gust came around to blow me down
 I held on as tightly as you held on me
 I held on as tightly as you held on me

Chorus 2

And I built a home, for you, for me
 Until it disappeared, from me, from you
 And now, it's time to leave and turn to dust

Coda ("That Home")

Where the dogs are roaming all day long
 Where the stairs are leaning dusk 'til dawn
 Where the windows are breathing in the light
 Where the rooms are a collection of our lives
 This is a place where I don't feel alone
 This is a place that I call my home.
