Verse 1

Pearl, listen to me now
I'm about to bring you down
There are things I need to tell you that can't wait.
I've been doubting in my sleep
There are secrets I keep
Maybe in the end I'll find a way to stay
But Pearl, it don't feel that way today

Verse 2

It wasn't long ago, I was down upon my knees
Begging you to change your mind again
You were tired of trying to love me
And had put yourself above me
You tried to leave but, Pearl, I don't let go
That is until tonight, now I know

Chorus

There's a world outside our window
There's the mystery of desire
I could wait to make you happen
I could set this house on fire

Verse 3

Listen, now, I'm about to bring it down
Are we meant to be, I'll ask again
As I wait for your reply
Hear the traffic passing by
Tomorrow I'll be far away from here
Pearl, I'll be far away from here

Through the world outside my window
Though you're all that I desire
I couldn't make you happy
So I'll set this house on fire
