Verse 1

You told me that you'd stay with me
And shelter me forever
That was a hard promise to keep
I can't blame you for the bad weather.

After all that has been said and done
I won't ask you where you're going
Don't keep in touch, I don't miss you much
Except sometimes early in the morning.

Chorus

So use your silver tongue once more
There's one thing that I'd like to know
Did you ever believe the lies that you told
Did you own the fool's gold that you gave me?

Ooo, ooo, ooo...

Verse 3

I forgive you wanting to be free
I realize you long to wander
And I sympathize with your roving eyes
I just can't forgive your bad manners.

Chorus

Now use your silver tongue once more
There's one thing that I'd like to know
Did you ever believe the lies that you told
Did you own the fool's gold that you gave me?

Did you ever believe the lies that you told
Did you own the fool's gold that you gave me?
