Verse 1

I wanna take a streetcar downtown
 Read Henry Miller and wander around
 And drink some Guinness from a tin
 'Cause my UI cheque has just come in,
 Ah, where ya been because

Chorus

Everything is comin' up rosy and grey
 The wind is cold but the smell of snow warms me today
 And your smile is fine, and it's just like mine
 And it won't go away because everything is rosy and grey

Verse 2

Well you've been under my skin for more than 8 years
 It's been 8 years of laughter and 8 years of tears
 And I dunno what the future will hold, for me and you
 But I'm a much better man for having known you
 Ah you know that's true because

Chorus

Bridge B

We'll I've been told that there's a sucker born every day
 Well I wonder who, yeah I wonder who Maybe the world doesn't realize there's a thousand shades of grey
 I know that's true, yeah

Verse 3

They're pickin' up trash and they're puttin' down roads
 And they're brokerin' stocks the class struggle explodes
 And I play this guitar just the best that I can Maybe I'm not and maybe I am Ah who gives a damn? Because

Chorus

Verse 4 (risque)

I've kissed you in France and I've kissed you in Spain
 And I've kissed you in places I'd better not name
 And I've seen the sun go down on Chates de Coeur
 But I'd like it much better goin down on you, yeah,
