

Superfriendz – Length of Heart

Intro

Verse

Chorus

Bridge ("In evenings...")

Ending

Verse 1

Well I'd admit there is the chance we've already gone the length of your heart
 'cause you're out having a whale of a time and I'm not getting used to that

Chorus 1

You see, you come to mind at the awkwardest times
 And like a threadbare sweater for winter weather
 I'm looking for traces of you

Verse 2

I scan the ice flows for ambergris hoping to trap in it the smell of you But the last time you came to me your skin had already been perfumed.

Chorus 2

And you come to mind at the obvious times but it's not likely I'm going to find you in the evenings or in the afternoons in the drawn out distance of longing and latitude

Ending

So I'll disengage this clutch and grab technique and I'll find something else to occupy my mind and when it's said and done, I do believe it will be true I'll be better off not thinking of you I do believe I will be relieved when we're finally through I'll be better off without you.
