Verse 1

In the densest cities in the busiest parts
 Sometimes the traffic noise gets so loud
 Amidst the clap and thunder of SUVs
 There isn't room for romance
 Two birds can't even hear the love calls they're singing out

Chorus 1

I don't know what I would do if that was me missing you
 Singing my heart out but never getting through
 If that was me missing you, missing you

Verse 2

On the tallest mountains at the highest peaks
 Sometimes compassion is thinner than air
 Amidst a sudden flurry of summer snow
 She focuses on the goal
 And doesn't see the stumbled footsteps she passes by

Chorus 2

...Reaching the summit but never knowing the truth...

Bridge

In the constellations in every person's night sky
 Some people say that our fate is inscribed
 Do you believe that our fate is inscribed?
 And in the horoscope that he read that day
 It said the same, but it wouldn't give him a name
 Above his head, as he read shot a shooting star

Chorus 3

...Shooting through life but never catching my cue...

Chorus 4

If that was me missing you
 Singing my heart out but never getting through
 If that was me missing you, missing you.
